Domestic Turns Violent—

Last Sunday evening, our officers were called to a domestic that occurred earlier in the evening. The investigating officers learned that a 20-year-old female victim went to pick up a male from Buffalo Wild Wings. The male became belligerent so the female got out of the car to walk to a friend’s house—when walking, the male hit the female with the car. The male got out of the car and pulled the female into the car by her hair. Once inside the car, the male hit the female repeatedly in the arms, ribs and head and choked her into unconsciousness. The victim regained consciousness and convinced the male to give her a ride to work, but not before the male made the victim give him her cell phone and threatened to kill her family if she told anyone. Officers located the male on St. Paul Rd and he was arrested. Delmer George Weiss Robbins, age 23, has been charged with a litany of crimes, including, Attempted 1st Degree Assault, 1st Degree Aggregated Robbery, 2nd Degree Assault with a Dangerous Weapon, Kidnapping, Terroristic Threats and Domestic Assault by Strangulation—all felonies—he remains jailed on $100,000 bail.

Polar Plunge—

Plunging temperatures means its Polar Plunge time in Owatonna. It’s not too late to register or donate now for the 2018 Polar Plunge being held at Lake Kohlmier in Owatonna on January 27th. Check in is between 11:00 AM and 1:00 PM with the plunge to take place at 1:00. The event is offered by law enforcement to help support Special Olympic athletes. Citizens are welcome to attend in groups or individually. For more information, click here. In the picture below, our own Chief Keith Hiller, Officer Andrew Van Osdale and Administrative Technician Pam Roberts are making the plunge into the icy depths at last year’s event.
